

The Emergency Medicine Cardiac Research and Education Group-International

EMCREG-International Symposium during the 2019 Heart Course in Las Vegas, Nevada:

Reversal of Severe Bleeding for Patients Treated with Factor Xa Inhibitors and other Anticoagulants, Deep Venous Thrombosis/Pulmonary Embolism, & STEMI/NSTEMI ACS

Dates: Tuesday October 22, 2019 11:30 AM -1:00 PM and Wednesday October 23, 2019 11:45 AM - 1:15 PM

Symposium and Lunch are complimentary

Location: Planet Hollywood Hotel, Las Vegas, Nevada

Symposium Day 1 – Tuesday October 22, 2019, 11:30 AM - 1:00 PM

Deep Venous Thrombosis and Pulmonary Embolism: Optimal Care in the ED

Greg J. Fermann, MD University of Cincinnati College of Medicine

Impact of HS-troponin T on the Diagnosis of Non-ST-Segment Elevation Acute Coronary Syndrome in the Emergency Setting

W. Frank Peacock, MD, Baylor University School of Medicine

Reversing Life-Threatening Bleeding in the Anticoagulated ED Patient

Charles V. Pollack, Jr. MD, Hospital Quality Foundation, Shrewsbury, NJ

Panel Discussion and Q & A - W. Brian Gibler, MD University of Cincinnati (Moderator)

Symposium Day 2 – Wednesday October 23, 2019, 11:45 AM - 1:15 PM

Optimal Therapeutic Management of Non-St-segment Elevation and ST-Elevation Acute Coronary Syndrome (ACS) in the Emergency Setting

Anna Marie Chang, MD, Thomas Jefferson University

Developing Your Own Hospital Critical Care Pathway for Severe Bleeding in the Anticoagulated Patient

Joshua M. Kosowsky, MD Brigham and Women's Hospital/Harvard University

Treating Intracranial and Intraspinial Bleeding in the Anticoagulated Patient

Natalie P. Kreitzer, MD University of Cincinnati EM/Neurocritical Care

Panel Discussion and Q & A - W. Brian Gibler, MD University of Cincinnati (Moderator)